Dear Dr Uytico:

Warm Greetings!

The Province of Negros Occidental through the Office of the Provincial Agriculturist (OPA) will celebrate the 17th Negros Island Organic Farmers Festival (NIOFF) and 2nd Slow Food Terra Madre - Visayas on November 19-23, 2024 with the theme "ABANSE Kita sa Organiko

Agent to this, we are inviting you to join the Opening Program on November 19, 2024 9AM at the Negros Residences, Bacolod City and Governor's night 7PM at the Capitol Grounds.

We also invite the participation of the 19 DepEd Farm Schools in Negros Occidental and secure their commitment to join the five (5) days Exhibit and Trade Fair at the festival site along the North Capitol Road, Bacolod City.

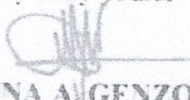

The exhibit will be done in coordination with the respective local government units where the farm school is located. We are providing free booths and meals (2 snacks and 1 lunch) for 2 persons per farm school. Likewise, we request for the 13 Education Program Supervisors (EPS-TLE) to attend and choose among the series of fora and seminars during the event.

This festival aims to celebrate and showcase organic agriculture while restoring our connection with nature, consistent on its quest as the Organic Agriculture Capital of the Philippines in support to the RA 11511 Organic Agriculture Act. Activities will include taste workshops, organic night markets, live bands, food alleys, and seminars.

For more information and queries, you may communicate through Ms. Dorlyn A. Vergara, Provincial Organic Agriculture Program Focal Person with mobile number 0920-1342317 / Sheryl Sellado - 09285787864 or email at opanegocc@yahoo.com.

Thank you very much.
