SUBJECT : REQUEST FOR RESPONDENTS FOR THE STUDY ON THE E-LEARNING COURSE ON CHILD PROTECTION 2024

DATE : March 10, 2025

This has reference to the letter from the Stairway Foundation Inc. (SFI) relative to their study and evaluation of the 2024 Child Protection e-Learning Course.

As a background, the LRPD, in partnership with the SFI, launched the 2nd Child Protection e-Learning Course for educators with 5,791 course completers. The Course aims to increase the comprehension and capacities of our educators in addressing online learner rights and protection concerns, ensuring a safe and protective online environment for our learners. Relatedly, in order to analyze the Course's processes, strategies, and challenges, the SFI will be conducting an evaluation and study of the overall impact of the e-Learning Course to our educators who were able to complete the course. Please refer to the table below for the number of participants per region:

February 03, 2025

Atty. Suzette Ganaban-Medina

Officer-in-Charge, Office of the Director III
Department of Education Bureau of Learner Support Services and Learner Rights and Protection Office

Dear Atty. Ganaban-Medina,

As the new year start, we would like to extend our sincerest gratitude for the continued partnership and collaboration of your office with Stairway Foundation, Inc. in creating a protective environment for children both offline and online.

As you know, one of the major components of Stairway Foundation Inc. Global Program on Stopping Cybercrime against Children: More safety and protection in the Internet is the e-learning course on child online protection in partnership with your agency and/or organization. The purpose of e-learning is to increase comprehension and capacities of child protection actors to effectively function their mandated roles in making children and adolescents safe from online violence.

In our efforts to enhance our e-learning program, SFI is conducting an "E-Learning Study as an Approach to Capacity Building on Child Online Protection in the Philippines" in order to analyze the e-learning program processes, strategies, challenges, utilization, wide-scale adoption, outcome, suitability and impacts. Specifically the study will:

- 1) Explore organizational processes and strategies in implementing the e-learning model;
- 2) Examine technological and structural aspects of the e-learning platform;
- 3) Evaluate organizational utilization and effectiveness of the e-learning course;
- 4) Assess stakeholder engagement, experiences and usage of the e-learning platform;
- 5) Identify barriers and enablers of scaling; and
- 6) Generate lessons learned and recommendations for the enhancement of the e-learning program.

As our partner in the implementation of the e-learning program we would like to invite you to take part in the study. Specific for your agency and/or organization, the following are the activities which our Consultant, Mr. Marco Puzon will directly coordinate with you.
